

West Virginia Garden Club, Inc.
Life and Diamond Membership Application Instructions

Program Overview

The Life and Diamond Membership program supports WVGCI's Scholarship program.

Life and Diamond Membership may be awarded to members and non-members with a donation of a specified amount to the WVGCI scholarship program in recognition of service promoting the objectives of WVGCI. Life or Diamond Life Membership is an honorary status. Members recognized with these honors must continue to pay dues. To be awarded a Diamond Life Membership the recipient must be a Life Member.

Cost

A Life Membership Cost $50. The pin is an extra $15. A Diamond Membership cost $60 inclusive of rocker.

Instructions

Complete the Life Membership Form.

Decide how you want the membership presented. In all cases the certificate and pin will be mailed to the contact person listed on the Life Membership Form.

If you choose to have the membership presented at the Convention by the State President, you will be responsible for notifying the State President of your request to have the membership presented at the convention and bringing the certificate/pin to the convention.

If you choose to have the membership presented at the District Meeting, you will be responsible for notifying your District Director of your request to have the membership presented at the District Meeting and bringing the certificate/pin to the District Meeting.

Mailing

When the Life Membership Chairman receives the form, they will notify you that your form was received and an expected delivery date. Please allow time for the request to be processed and sent to the State President for signature and sealing.
